

ANNA ESKAMANI

Working For You, Fighting For Us

ABOUT US

Anna, a fierce advocate for Florida families, hails from Orlando, the daughter of hardworking Iranian immigrants. A product of public education and the University of Central Florida, she's a nonprofit professional pursuing a PhD in Public Administration. Elected in 2018, Anna flipped a legislative seat and proudly represents District 42. As former Chair of the Orange County Legislative Delegation and current chair of the Florida Legislative Energy and Climate Caucus, she champions causes that focus on the needs of everyday people. With a background at Planned Parenthood, Anna's known statewide for her unwavering dedication and unyielding leadership. Committed to the people of Florida, she embodies resilience, hard work, and integrity.
